What's hot for Spring 2005? It's bohemian style—Boho. And, yes this 60's and 70's inspired look first originated in the 18th Century from Bohemia, central Europe. Now, Boho style is back with a fashion vengeance. This year, bohemian style has evolved into the biggest look for spring. If you still have those eye-popping glass-bead necklaces and leather-and-cork wedge sandals, dig them out and put them on. Become a confident gypsy queen.

The range of options is endless, with Boho anything goes. Spring into Boho.

Say good-bye to 'safe' white baby T's and rolled-up denim capris, and say hello to Boho! Boho style is all about sequin-trimmed silk scarves and belts in punchy deep blues, soft chiffon skirts, and beautiful resin-beaded accessories. The brilliant, feminine colours make this style absolutely to die for. This style is an absolute must in your spring and summer wardrobe. Boho has versatility. You can move from a fun, feminine natural look in the day to a sensual, sexy glam look at night. If you thought bohemian style couldn't get any better...well...it has.

Boho is a style that is not conformed to the dos and don'ts of fashion. Forget the fashion rule: colour co-ordinate your shoes and purse. Follow your inner spirit and creativity. Be spontaneous! When stepping out in Boho style: go crazy—mix and match colours, patterns, fabrics, and accessories. The range of options is endless, with Boho anything goes. Spring into Boho.
